Dear Parishioners,

It was such a blessed time away for my brother's wedding last weekend. It was a beautiful Mass and a wonderful day as Kevin and Rosaria celebrated the Sacrament of Matrimony at St. Rose Parish in Perrysburg. Kevin is my only brother and so it was a great honor to be the celebrant for his wedding. He also asked me to give a speech/toast at his wedding reception. It was a great honor to do that as well. I told the true story of how Kevin is one of 50 grandchildren on the Perry side and of how our Grandma Perry always wanted to have a priest in the family. As far as I know, she only said this once about one of her grandchildren: when Kevin was born, Grandma Perry said, "Kevin, will be my priest." I jokingly said that since, growing up, I could tell that Kevin did not want to be a priest, I graciously decided to do it for him. I also included some sentimental and heartfelt things as well. It was a moving weekend, and I am so happy for my brother and his wife as they begin to live out God's call to marriage.

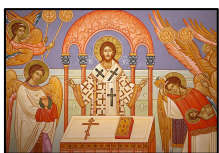

This past week, I also had the joy of concelebrating the Homeschool Graduation Mass at Rosary Cathedral. There were 18 students recognized as Jr. High and High School Graduates including Coletta Otto and Genevieve Otto. There were also several families from our parishes and area present as well. Congratulations to Coletta and Genevieve and to all the graduates! Back on Pentecost, Bishop Thomas also celebrated the Adult Confirmation Mass for those adults who had been baptized Catholic but had not yet received the sacrament of Confirmation. Aidon Lause, whom our OCIA Team has been working with for the past several months, was one who completed his Christian initiation at this Mass by being sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit. Congratulations to Aidon and a special thanks to our OCIA Team for walking with him in preparing him for this sacrament.

While this past weekend for me was one filled with much joy with my brother's wedding, it was also filled with great sadness as our community experienced the loss of two young students of Miller City - New Cleveland School, Gus Niese and Archer Niese. My heart was so heavy as I learned of what happened. It was a tragic loss, and I have been praying very much for all of those who are mourning the deaths of Gus and Archer, especially their family and extended family. I think the only way to make it through things like this is our faith. I am very grateful that Cherie Compton, our Coordinator of Religious Education, decided to postpone Vacation Bible School this past week and to hold a prayer service on Wednesday instead. It was good to come together during this time of grief and loss, and it was amazing to see the number of people who attended. I know that the family is so grateful for the outpouring of support and prayers. I am inspired, too, to see Tyler and Kayla's faith and trust in God, even in this difficult moment of the loss of their sons. Please continue to keep their family in your prayers.

In times of joy and in times of sorrow, may we always keep our eyes fixed on the Lord and keep our faith and trust in Him. The Lord is with us when we face the difficult moments of the cross, and He shares in our joys as well, joys that point toward the unending joy of heaven. He is with us, especially in the Holy Eucharist, giving us the gift of Himself to strengthen us. As we celebrate the great gift of this sacrament today, may it unite all of our joys and sorrows to Him and be comforted by the hope of life with God forever in the joy, peace, and glory of His Kingdom.

In Christ,
Fr. Scott
