J M + J T

To my dearest home parish family,

Praised be Jesus Christ our King! There has been an immense outpouring of grace into this little soul of mine—grace that has granted release from frustration, redemption from failure, rest from performance, and most importantly return to my home and family. With immense sorrow, yet with even more peace and knowing, I will be departing Carmel on Wednesday, October 14th, taking the next unprecedented step to heed my King's voice.

I have rediscovered what is most important to me, what I value most deeply—family, home. It was for them and for you that I have been brought to Carmel, and it is for them and for you that I am being beckoned to return. I really believe the Lord brought me to the Carmelite Sisters of the Most Sacred Heart of Los Angeles to deeply experience their beautiful, healthy, whole, authentic, joyful family spirit and to bring it back to my beloved ones. I truly go forward from here forgiven, full, and above all, free.

Yet, my whole being grieves what I will be leaving. I have learned so much. I have loved so much. And I will only continue to love with the love each of my Sisters have shown me. Isaiah says in the First Reading today, “The Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from every face” (Isaiah 25:8). And the Responsorial Psalm, “He guides me in right paths for his name’s sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage” (Psalm 23:3-4). And St. Paul in the Second Reading, “I can do all things in him who strengthens me” (Philippians 4:13). The Gospel Acclamation, “May the Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call”. My dear parish family, I know this hope, even though it is extremely difficult to embrace sometimes. With great faith, I refuse to ignore the invitation my King Jesus speaks about in the Gospel today. He has made me ready for such a time as this.

I ask that God richly reward all of you for withholding nothing of His goodness to me—your prayers, your support, your letters and cards, entrusting me with your intentions, your encouragement, your hope. I have received it all with immense reverence and unending gratitude. In these days as I prepare to return home, I hold you all so tenderly in my heart and prayers, begging you do the same for me.

Wrapped in the Hearts of the Holy Family,

Regina Lynn Rose Schnipke

Lovingly remembered in Carmel,

Sister Grace of Christ the King, OCD

THE IMPORTANCE OF PRAYER

Deacon Jim Verhoff

Former Holy Family parishioner, Deacon Jim Verhoff, will give a 45 minute informal presentation on Sunday, October 18 in the Holy Family Parish Hall beginning at 1:30 pm. His topic is "The importance of prayer in one's life". Jim has experienced several miracles in his life so this talk promises to be interesting and meaningful. An opportunity to visit with Jim and his sons will immediately follow the talk.

CHRISTMAS PLAY: We are looking for someone/s to lead our Christmas Program this year! Sadly, without a volunteer/s, we may not be able to have the program. Please reach out if you can help!

"BOX OF JOY" CHRISTMAS BOXES: by Cross Catholic Outreach are available for pickup in the back of both churches. Our parishes will again be participating in the Box of Joy ministry, a Christmas shoebox gift outreach organized by local Catholic schools, parishes & groups nationwide. We are given the opportunity to bless children suffering from extreme poverty by filling boxes with toys & other gifts, sharing the joy of Christmas, & planting seeds of hope through the Gospel. We encourage all families to pack a Box of Joy! Last year, our parish community donated just over 95 boxes! We will be sending home 1 box per family for PSR grades 1 - 8th, participation is optional. All donations for shipping of the boxes will need to be made via online (preferred) or mail. Filled boxes need to be returned to the back of either church by October 26 or to the Holy Family Catholic Radio office. For more info, contact Jenelle Niese (419-889-4211) or check out boxofjoy.org. Thank you for your kindness & generosity to fulfill the needs of others this giving season!
