October 25, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

I am looking forward to taking my annual retreat this week. I will be away from Monday, October 26 through Friday, October 30 at the Spiritual Center of Maria Stein. There will be around 22 priests attending this diocesan retreat which is being led by Fr. Donald Haggerty, the rector of St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City. Every Christmas, Bishop Thomas gives all of the priests a spiritual book, and last year, he gave us a book by Fr. Haggerty which I very much enjoyed. He seems to be a deeply spiritual man, and I am looking forward to the talks that he will give, the time for prayer together with my brother priests, and time to be spiritually renewed. If you have any prayer intentions that you would like me to pray for during my retreat, please let me know by 9:00 am on Monday (you can email me at frscottperry@stnicholasholyfamily.org). I will be happy to intercede for your specific intentions.

Please note that while I am away, there will be no daily Masses, Eucharistic Adoration, or Confessions due to the difficulty of finding a substitute priest. Also, if there is an emergency, please contact the St. John the Baptist Rectory in Glandorf at 419-538-6928. Fr. Matthew Keller has graciously agreed to take any emergency calls while I am away (our former pastor, Fr. Steve Schroeder, usually fulfills this role, but he will be attending the retreat as well).

Speaking of retreats, our 8th Grade Confirmation candidates will be making a retreat from October 30 - November 1 in anticipation of receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation on March 7, 2027 at the newly restored Rosary Cathedral. Our 8th Graders will once again be traveling to Damascus for a weekend filled with encountering the Lord in different ways. Please keep them in your prayers as they enter this sacred time.

In addition to my retreat, I have the opportunity to spend time with my family for some special celebrations. My parents' 40th Wedding Anniversary is today, October 25. We met in Perrysburg last Friday as a family to celebrate this milestone for my mom and dad. On Friday, October 30 after the conclusion of my retreat, I plan to head to Tiffin to celebrate my niece's birthday party. She is turning two on Friday and has done very well since being born premature and weighing around only three pounds. She is always a joy to see.

I would like to say congratulations to all of the fall athletes of our parishes as they conclude the regular season. There have been many great accomplishments by our local sports teams including both our boys and girls soccer teams going undefeated this year and them both winning the two different leagues that they each play in. I have enjoyed attending volleyball games and one of our cross country meets as well. Sports can teach many lessons and virtues including discipline, teamwork, and perseverance. If approached the right way, sports can be a way to glorify God and grow closer to Him.

Finally, this week will mark Moriah Inkrott's last day in her role as our Youth & Young Adult Minister in our parishes. She has done such an excellent job and has a great gift for ministry. I am grateful that the Lord led her to serve in this role since the summer of 2025. She will be missed, but now she will be able to fulfill the desire that the Lord has put on her heart of being a stay-at-home mother. Please keep her in your prayers as she makes this transition and as she and Joshua prepare to welcome their child into the world in January.

In Christ,
Fr. Scott
