November 1, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

Today, November 1 begins National Vocations Awareness Week. It is a time dedicated to supporting, promoting, and teaching about vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life and praying for an increase in these vocations. Consecrated life includes religious life as a sister or brother as well as other forms of being consecrated to God such as consecrated virginity. Pages 6 and 7 of the bulletin this Sunday include our seminarian and consecrated life posters for our diocese.

A new initiative that we are beginning is the spiritual adoption of two seminarians by our parishes. We will be adopting for the year Quinton Schnipke from Ottoville Immaculate Conception Parish and Austin Giesige from Ottawa Saints Peter and Paul Parish. Both Quinton and Austin are in their first overall year of seminary at the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus. They were also both in my Putnam County discernment groups from these past couple of years and so I got to know them from that experience.

Adopting a seminarian includes a parish especially praying for that seminarian and showing encouragement to him through letters and cards. I remember receiving cards from elementary and high school students while I was in seminary as well as letters from adults. It meant a lot to me and was a great source of encouragement as I went through my years of formation for the priesthood. If you would like to send a card to Quinton and Austin to let them know of your prayers and support, please see their pictures and information at the bottom of this page.

Related to vocations, Bishop Thomas has requested that the daily Hail Mary prayer for vocations to the priesthood (which he has asked all Catholics in our diocese to pray) be said publicly at Masses, if possible. He suggested various ways to do this and one was to offer a rosary before Masses for vocations. Since we often pray the rosary before Mass, I thought that this could be a nice way to implement his request. So beginning this weekend, the rosary that is typically prayed before Lord's Day and weekday Masses in our parishes will be offered for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life. This intention will be announced by the person leading the rosary.

Also, as we celebrate National Vocations Awareness Week, I would like to say again how proud I am of Regina for trying out religious formation these past three years. Formation for the priesthood or religious life is a process of discernment, and it is a common thing for a young man or woman to discern that the vocation they are pursuing is not what God is calling them to. If a person enters a seminary or a convent, there is no pressure or expectation that they will be ordained or make final vows someday. They are simply entering a sacred environment conducive to discernment that will allow them truly see if God is calling them in that way. If a person discovers that they are not called and leaves formation, that is a good thing. Their time in formation will still be very valuable in living out the vocation that God has in store for them. The goal of discernment is always to do the will of God because it is in doing His will that allows us to become who God wants us to be.

As I mentioned at a few of the Masses last weekend, I am excited that Regina will once again be joining our Parish Staff as a Pastoral Associate. She is taking on some of Moriah Inkrott's role as well as part of Cherie Compton's role (Cherie will be moving from full-time to part-time at her request). Regina may also be involved in some work with music. I think that Regina's ministry and work in our parishes will be a great blessing to many, and I am looking forward to working with her again. She hopes to begin sometime in November.

In the Church, the month of November is traditionally a time of especially praying for the dead. Tomorrow, November 2 is All Souls' Day where we especially pray for the souls in purgatory, that they may be purified and made ready to enter the wedding feast of heaven. We will mark this day with a special Mass at 6:30 pm at Holy Family. This Thursday, we will celebrate our annual Mass for Deceased Parishioners. This Mass will be offered for those individuals whose Funeral Masses or Liturgies were celebrated in the past year.

May the Lord grant an increase in laborers for His Church through vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life, may the Lord bless Regina's ministry in our parishes, and may we remember to pray for the dead this November, that they may know the joy, glory, and peace of life with God forever.

In Christ,
Fr. Scott
